cmccormack@darwingray.com

Caragh joined Darwin Gray in September 2024 as a Trainee Solicitor; she has completed her first seat with the Corporate and Commercial team and her second seat with the commercial property team. Caragh is currently working alongside our award-winning employment law team for her third and fourth seat.

Caragh obtained a First-Class Honours degree in Law at Swansea University in 2023, and went on to complete the Legal Practice Course, with combined Masters, in late 2024. As someone who values relationships and cares about people, she is looking forward to contributing to the firm's journey in supporting clients.
