

Melody Nyarang'o

Solicitor

029 2082 9100

MNyarang'o@darwingray.com

Melody joined Darwin Gray in August 2026 as a Solicitor in the firm's highly regarded Dispute Resolution team. Melody qualified as an Advocate of the High Court of Kenya in 2020 and practised for two years. During this time, she advised on and litigated a wide range of matters, including contractual, probate, property, procurement, and intellectual property disputes.

In 2022, Melody relocated to the United Kingdom to pursue a Master's degree in Intellectual Property Law at Cardiff University. Since qualifying as a Solicitor, Melody has developed experience across a broad range of contentious matters, advising both individuals and businesses on commercial and civil disputes.

Expertise

- Debt recovery
- Residential possession and eviction claims
- Breach of contract claims
- Probate Disputes
- Land, Boundary and Property Disputes

Career

Experience

- Solicitor, Darwin Gray, 2026 – present
- Solicitor, CJCH, 2025 – 2026
- Paralegal, CIAH, 2024 – 2025

Education

- LLAM Intellectual Property Law, Cardiff University
- PGDL, Kenya School of Law
- LLB, University of Nairobi